Lift tower light up

LIFT TOWER: The HD screen would show pictures and videos to promote the town

A 418ft tall tower in Northampton could be turned into the 'world's biggest lava lamp'.

Plans have been submitted to Northampton Borough Council to wrap a 3,000sqm high definition LED screen around the National Lift Tower. The 85-metre tall screen would be used to show art installations and promote the area.

Ben Rogers, a spokesman for the tower, said: "The Lift Tower can act as a powerful commercial beacon, supporting tourism, commerce and communities alike in a powerful and creative way."

Killer of devoted dad is jailed

■ Daniel Tero

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A 'violent man' with a string of past convictions for inflicting significant harm to others has been jailed for the manslaughter of a peacemaker dad.

Daniel Tero, 22, of Kingsthorpe Hollow, was sentenced to four years and 10 months on Monday at Northampton Crown Court for killing 61-year-old George Wedderburn.

He was also ordered to serve three years and eight months on licence once released from prison.

Mr Wedderburn, of Byfield Road, St James, was walking through Abington Square in Northampton town centre with his son during the early hours of Sunday, August 17 when he saw a fight between Tero and another man.

He then tried to break up the fight but despite Mr Wedderburn stepping in to defuse the situation Tero punched him, leaving him with significant head injuries.

The dad-of-two later died at Northampton General Hospital on Saturday, August 23.

Detective Chief Inspector Stephen Woliter, of Northamptonshire Police, said: "George Wedderburn was acting as a good samaritan when he crossed the road to assist a member of the public who was being assaulted."

"Unfortunately he was then assaulted by the aggressor, Daniel Tero, who punched him once to the head, knocking him to the floor. It was the impact of his fall that led to his death almost a week later.

"This has been a huge loss for Mr Wedderburn's family and friends who remember him as a kind and caring man."

"Daniel Tero by contrast is a violent, confrontational and aggressive man with past convictions for inflicting unprovoked significant harm to others."

"This type of one-punch assault is unfortunately prevalent in towns and cities across the UK and, in this case, has had disastrous consequences for Mr Wedderburn and his family."

Mr Wedderburn's two teenage sons described him as 'a hero who died a peacemaker' and 'a good friend and confidant'.

His partner, Angela Augustine, added: "Our sons have lost a devoted dad. My wider family have lost a brother, stepdad and close friend and I have lost my soulmate and the father to my children."

"George was a good man, a gentle giant, liked by all that knew him, he loved being with his two children and spent a lot of time with his step-children."

Editor's Letter

You can have free speech but take care what you say

Theresa May's plans to cleanse Britain of extremist propaganda made a lot of headlines at the Tory conference in Birmingham this week.

The former Conservative shadow Home Secretary David Davies was flabbergasted by it and saw it as an attack on free speech.

The stated aim is to eradicate the polemic that recruits people not just for Jihad but for any extreme cause.

And the triggers for intervention will be language that incites hatred, undermines democracy or harasses people and causes them to fear violence.

There are already laws which cover some of this ground and this will extend those powers to cover behaviour which although offensive, is currently legal.

The penalties will be administered by the Home Office where there is a reasonable belief that one of the conditions has been contravened. They include banning organisations and stopping individuals using social media.

This is being done, alongside a ramping up of the state's power to investigate terrorism and seize passports if it doesn't like the reason you are travelling to Iraq or Syria, to protect British values.

We can have a long discussion about what British values are and I doubt we could agree on much more than fair play or free speech.

And whether it proves to be worthwhile or not, this is by definition an attack on free speech.

Our Government wants to control the way in which all 70 million of us argue and discuss things in the UK because a few dozen people have been running their mouths.

And it will enact this control by Home Office decree. You might not be planning to declare a Holy War but what if you see something on the news and react by letting off some steam on Facebook?

The trouble with rules like these is they can be turned on anyone. In fact I'd say they are hateful, undemocratic and I feel harassed by them... perhaps we should kick ban the Government and kick them off Twitter...

Bronson jail art to be auctioned

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@northants.co.uk

Artwork by Charles Bronson, described as Britain's 'most violent prisoner', is to go under the hammer at JP Humbert auctioneers in Towcester.

The 61-year-old inmate, who recently changed his name by deed poll to Charles Salvador, has become almost as well known for his artwork as his life of crime.

He is now selling the pieces in a huge auction of around 200 lots including paintings, personal effects, clothing, signed books, a hand-made Christmas present and even part of his beard.

Auctioneer Jonathan Humbert said: "Mr Salvador has now 'rejected violence' and adopted his new alter-ego.

"In his own words, 'I have given this a lot of thought and I really have little choice but to kill Bronson off once and for all. I have become a hostage of my own notoriety; Bronson is burying any chance of me ever being freed'."

After being originally jailed for seven years in 1974 for robbery, Bronson went on to make a name for himself by fighting prison guards, taking other inmates prisoner and starting one man riots. Last month he was given another two years in jail for assaulting the governor of HMP Woodhill in Milton Keynes in February. He has now been moved to HMP Wakefield.

The collection will go on sale on October 9.

Inspiration comes from the community

H&P Editor Steve Scoles sits in with Inspiration FM lunchtime DJ and resident Northern Soul expert Paddy Grady to see a show go out...

Watching Paddy Grady crafting the lunchtime show out of thin air at Inspiration FM is like watching a peculiar hypnotic dance performance.

His hand flicks out to hit a button that cues a jingle, then he's sliding a volume control up and down to allow him to speak over a bit of background music, then he's on a keyboard adjusting the notes he has emailed himself to help him through the show.

Now he's got hold of his computer mouse and is dragging songs on to his Virtual DJ desktop to get them ready for airing.

It's entirely appropriate that Paddy dances his way through his programme, albeit with his backside firmly planted on his seat - he is a lover of Northern Soul.

It was his passion for it that saw him setting up one of the very earliest internet radio stations.

"I used to just play rare recordings from America. I never expected it to be that popular but it took off and my site kept crashing because it was overloaded with traffic.

"It was getting to the stage where I was having to pay 300 quid a time just to stay on air."

It was enough for Paddy to get bitten by the radio bug, however, and years later - with slots on Radio Northamptonshire under his belt - he is now a firm fixture at lunchtimes on Inspiration FM.

A screen by his side displays the messages Paddy is getting on Twitter during his show.

People are commenting on his programme, praising his choice of music and making their own requests.

Most of the Tweets are addressed affectionately to 'Padz'. Inspiration's listeners have clearly taken him to heart.

There is a mutual bond. Paddy knows where the Tweets are coming from and why.

"It's that time of day for the shoe factories. They sit with the radio on and send in their requests."

"People listen from all over. I have had a message from someone who was listening on their laptop at work in London."

He takes particular satisfaction if he can track down records listeners want to hear, even if they are less well known tracks.

It must be that liking for a rare groove that is so common among Northern Soul aficionados.

While I am watching him at work, Paddy's delight at finding a particular Ska track someone asked for is unmistakeable. He explained to me: "I like it if I can find just what they are looking for, especially if they don't think I can..."

As he was speaking he was cueing up Nite Club by The Specials.

Most of Paddy's show is speech. He indulges himself and his listeners with just one special soul track and one Northern Soul number every day, plus a selection of requests.

The day I am sitting in he is interviewing Gareth Wilshire, the Cobblers' press officer, about the forthcoming game at the weekend.

Almost as important, however, is a rumour about a curious pricing policy at the Sixfields pie stand which has tickled Paddy.

"Apparently there is a meal deal for a pie and drink but if you buy the drink and pie separately they cost less than the price of the meal deal. I'm going to ask him about that," Paddy says with a twinkle in his eye.

Inspiration FM broadcasts on the internet and on 107.8 FM in Northampton. It started as a pirate station for the Afro-Caribbean community in the 1990s but now reaches out to all communities in Northampton.

See more details at:

School to open at police HQ in 2016

nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A new free school will replace the Northants Police headquarters at Wootton Hall.

The green light for the opening of Wootton Park School was given on Tuesday by the Department for Education.

It will open in 2016 and will provide space for around 1,400 pupils aged four to 18 years old with a focus on 'citizenship, community and service'.

Andrew Sortwell, chairman of the Northampton Free School Trust, said: "I am delighted that the DfE has approved the opening of a new all through free school.

"The school will be unique, promoting high academic achievement from four to 18.

"It will offer something very different in terms of its internationally focussed curriculum and enrichment emphases. As a result it will increase choice and diversity locally."

The school will also offer crime science as a specialism and will work closely with local services including police and fire.

The initial concept for the school took inspiration from the police and crime plan of Adam Simmonds, the Northamptonshire Police and Crime Commissioner.

Mr Simmonds said: "We welcome the further progress to establish a school that will promote police and citizenship values."

"No firm decisions have yet been made about the future of the current HQ on the substantial site that makes up Wootton Hall park and, over the next few months, feasibility studies will continue with regard to the future of headquarters and the whole police estate."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

TALKING POINT: The controversial Sekhemka statue, and right, a close up of its face

Sekhemka sale bites back again

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Museums' Association (MA) has barred Northampton Borough Council from its membership for five years for selling the Sekhemka statue.

The decision was made yesterday in a meeting by the MA's disciplinary committee after it found the authority guilty of misconduct.

It comes in the wake of the council pulling out of the membership last week.

It makes Northampton Borough Council the fourth organisation that has been barred from membership in the MA's 125-year history.

This comes just two months after it was announced Northampton Museum had lost its Arts Council England accreditation.

A spokesperson for Northampton Borough Council said: "It is curious that the Museums' Association is choosing to review our membership when we have already notified them that we have resigned from the Association and have no desire to ever re-join. Having reviewed the value of membership we could not see what benefit it offered to our museums."

"We are focusing on the future and our exciting plans to invest in improving both museums including the huge expansion of the Northampton Museum and Art Gallery rather than the odd bureaucracy of an organisation we no longer belong to."

The 4,500-year-old sculpture was sold in July at London's Christie's auction house for £15.8m. The council retained £8m, while the rest went to Lord Northampton.

The money that went to the council is being invested into the major extension of Northampton Museum and Art Gallery.

Warning to pet owners about e-cigs

Pet owners are being warned about the dangers of e-cigarettes as the number of dogs being taken to vets with poisoning increases.

A 300 per cent rise in pooches swallowing e-cigarettes in the last 12 months has been recorded by the Veterinary Poisons Information Service, while Northampton-based White Cross Vets has noticed a 'significant rise' in the number of pets that it has had to treat.

Elton, an eight-month-old Zuchon puppy was one of the unlucky pets recently to swallow an e-cigarette capsule that was accidentally dropped on the floor.

He was rushed to the vets by his panic-stricken owner

Emma Ronnay. Ms Ronnay, of Redcar, Cleveland, said: "I was at work when my house-mate rang to tell me what had happened. The nicotine capsule fell out of his hand and before he could pick it up Elton had grabbed it."

"He instantly washed Elton's mouth out with water and I took him to the vets."

Elton was treated by vet Andrew Millar, who said: "Elton was lucky because he received treatment straight away and we knew exactly what had happened."

"We gave him some medication to counter the effects of the poison and a charcoal treatment to line his stomach and he has made a full recovery."

"When nicotine is ingested there is a very rapid-onset of clinical signs, generally within 15 minutes to an hour, so if a dog is home alone and something like this happens the risks are far greater."

Shopping centre plans £4m facelift

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A shopping centre in Northampton has unveiled plans for a major refurbishment.

Weston Favell Shopping Centre submitted plans to Northampton Borough Council on Friday to receive a huge £4 million facelift in a nine month project which would begin in January next year.

The works would include a re-brand of the facility, new entrances and exits, a new feature square on the lower mall, improved signage and decoration works to the external facade and pedestrian walkways.

It would be set to be completed in autumn next year and aims to 'deliver a modern, clean and vibrant community environment for shopping, leisure and socialising'.

Centre manager, Kevin Legg, said: "I am extremely excited to announce these plans."

"I think Weston Favell has been at the heart of the community for 40 years now and to see an investment like this come in out of the blue from the owners (Redefine) is fantastic."

"We have seen some down times here at WFC - we went into receivership about 24 months ago. But Redefine got on board in December, they have done a lot of work, looking at the centre, seeing how it can be enhanced to bring a better shopping experience to the Northampton public and that is what we are doing now."

Mr Legg also told the Northants Herald & Post that new shops would move into the centre as part of the scheme.

"There will be three or four new stores introduced into the scheme to add to the excellent tenant scheme we have already got."

"Throughout the refurbishment we will be temporarily relocating existing tenants around the centre while the works are carried out so they can have continuation of trade."

"There won't be any stores closing or leaving as a result of these plans, they will all be staying."

"Another bit of good news is that we have already got someone lined up to replace Store Twenty One which closed recently - but we can't announce who it is just yet."

"They say life begins at 40, and for the centre that is actually true!"

End to tap water issue

The water woes in a Northamptonshire village have finally ended after nine days of residents being advised to boil their water.

Anglian Water announced on Saturday that the issue had been resolved, and said it understood people's frustrations.

However, it also revealed that residents at four homes out of the 180 which were affected still need to boil their water.

This is because the company has been unable to contact them and take samples of the water.

A spokesperson said: "We know this was frustrating and inconvenient for the community, and we are very grateful for their patience and understanding."

Rocker's Hep C support

A successful rock and roll musician who played with the stars before collapsing into drug addiction is coming to The Picturedrome in Northampton.

Phil Spalding, 56, who has played bass guitar with the likes of Robbie Williams, Kylie Minogue and Elton John, will be at the venue next Saturday at 7.30pm with Neil Taylor, who was in the band Tears for Fears, to raise money for Hep C Positive.

This is a charity which provides support and information to people who are affected by the virus.

Phil is doing this because he had the virus himself when he was 45 due to drug taking. Tickets (£8) can be booked at www.thepicturedrome.com

Angelina Cupcake

My name is Julie and I am the chief cook and bottle washer at Angelina Cupcake. What you will get from me in my blog will be mostly tasty sweet treats but I will also share with you some of my savoury creations...

First up, the delicious brownie! Traditional brownies are chewy with a dense chocolate flavour. Feel free to add nuts, either pecans or walnuts work well, or for a more intense chocolate hit, you could add some chocolate chips to the mix!

My ultimate chocolate brownies

Makes:
12 Preparation Time:
15 minutes Cooking
Time: 30 minutes

Equipment needed

33 x 23 x 5-cm baking tray, lined with greaseproof paper

Ingredients

200g dark chocolate, roughly chopped
175g unsalted butter
325g caster sugar
130g plain flour
3 eggs
icing sugar, to decorate

Method

1. Preheat the oven to 170°C/325°F/gas mark 3.

2. Put the chocolate and butter in a heat-proof bowl over a saucepan of simmering water (do not let the base of the bowl touch the water). Leave until melted and smooth.

3. Remove from the heat. Add the sugar and stir until well incorporated. Add the flour and stir until well incorporated. Finally, stir in the eggs and mix until thick and smooth.

4. Spoon the mixture into the prepared baking tray and bake in the preheated oven for about 30 to 35 minutes, or until flaky on the top but still soft in the centre. You don't want to overcook otherwise the edges will become hard and crunchy.

5. Leave to cool before dusting with icing sugar, to decorate.

A day in the life of Fitzy

nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A documentary following the life of a well known market trader has had more than 1,000 hits.

Eamonn Fitzpatrick (pictured), famously known as Fitzy, has worked on the market in Northampton town centre for more than 53 years - serving a phenomenal two million customers.

The documentary, which was recently uploaded on video sharing site 'Vimeo', shows a day in his life as a 'fruit seller'.

It starts with him unloading stock from the back of his van at the crack of dawn, before moving through the day when he is doing what he does best - selling produce.

During the documentary, he talks of his deep sadness for the fact that he is part of a 'dying trade'.

However, he also speaks about his love of Northampton.

He said: "When I started here at 12 years old doing a Saturday job there were about 30 to 40 individual fruiterers. There is four now.

"The market is getting smaller and smaller each year and nobody can seem to stop the rot. Trade is dropping like flies and there is nothing to sell anymore. All the markets all over the country are dying."

Talking about his love for the town, he added: "I never want to live anywhere else but in Northampton. I was born here and I will probably die here."

GOING, GOING... The old bus station is set to be demolished by summer 2015

Replace Greyfriars with... a bus station

People in Northampton want to see transport facilities replace the Greyfriars Bus Station, results from a public consultation has revealed.

The demolition of the old Greyfriars bus station is now underway and when this is complete, it will leave a four acre site for development in the town centre.

Last month, the borough council carried out a consultation asking for people's views on what they wanted to see built on the large site.

The total number of ideas was 307 and 106 of those were people said they wanted the site to be used for public transport facilities, including buses, coaches and taxis.

The next most popular idea was for the site to be used for retail including a major department store, designer stores, a shopping arcade, covered market or a showcase for local shoe manufacturers.

The third most popular idea, with a total of 32, was for the site to be used for leisure or sport. Ideas in this category included a cinema, ten pin bowling alley, Olympic sized swimming pool, ice rink and velodrome.

A total of 25 ideas were for cafes or restaurants to be built, including a plaza style food court.

Other more quirky ideas included turning the site into Vegas style hotels, a display of the Thunderbird puppets made by Gerry Anderson, a Korean village and a site for 'adult entertainment'.

All of these views will now be reported back to the borough council cabinet on October 10 and will be taken into consideration as proposals to regenerate the area.

Cllr Tim Hadland, the council's cabinet member for regeneration, enterprise and planning said: "With an almost blank slate to start from I am pleased to see that people have come forward with a lot of exciting ideas. With so much potential for this prime site we will carefully look at each idea before deciding how we can redevelop the area to not only improve the town centre but all of Northampton as a place to shop, visit and live."

Fighting the foam banana

H&P Editor Steve Scoles takes his health and fitness odyssey to Trilogy

Take away the gym instructors and the scales and what happens to my fitness regime?

I am shocked at my behaviour since Derngate Gym closed.

Let me share some of the sins: a packet of foam banana sweets, a vanilla cheesecake with mascarpone, a bag of cinema pick'n'mix, too much white bread, a bacon butty...

On the other side of the balance sheet every journey I could make by bicycle I have done so.

I have even tried a bit of German High Volume Training in the back garden with number three son Billy (aged 11).

We were laughing more than we were sweating.

There is no doubt about it that somewhere between the weigh ins, the nutrition advice and the coaching from gym instructors Martin and Marianne, some kind of magic was being worked on the Body Fat Challenge.

I don't know how much of the good work has been undone yet but Trilogy Gym's offer for Martin and I to continue our journey with them has been a godsend.

We'll be back in action soon and trying out some of Trilogy's range of activities.

Former Derngate members have been offered a free try out at Trilogy which has gyms at the Mounts, Lings Forum and Danes Camp.

We asked new journalism students at the UoN for their first impressions of the area...

OUT ON THE TOWN: Sean sees the sights

London. The city that everybody wants to visit and also the city I chose to move from, writes Rebecca Pritchard.

London is one of the busiest and populated cities in the United Kingdom, so moving from that to a quieter and more reserved area like Northampton did surprise me.

There were no cars on the road speeding to their destinations, the people who were walking around town were in no rush and not pushing each other out of the way; and more importantly nobody was having an argument in the middle of the street over something irrelevant. I realised that it was true what people said about Londoners: we are just angry people for no reason...

First impressions for myself were a little different, as I have history with the town, writes Sean Atkinson.

I grew up here but moved away as a child and it's interesting to see the many different changes, and the things that have stayed the same. It's small things, housing developments on previously untouched pieces of land, the Woolworths I bought my first single from is now a Tesco Metro and there appears to be a brand new bus station, which I will come to know is much maligned. Despite the few changes, many things are the same.

The infamous lift tower is still a reassuring sight, as is the sight of those standing on the hill at Sixfields...

TOMORROW'S NEWS: UoN's journalism class of 2014

Freshers or 'Welcome Week' (as Northampton University call it) is over and it's safe to say I am shattered, writes Kady Middleton.

On Monday and Tuesday afternoon the Freshers Fair took place. This gave us the chance to have a nose around Park Campus as we are mainly based out of the smaller campus a mile up the road, Avenue Campus. There were a number of different stalls set up with freebies, incentives and a chance to sign up to any of the universities sports and societies. Northampton is the only university in the country where all sports and societies are free to students, so of course I was taking full advantage of this... see more online

RELAXING: students practice relaxation

By Sam Potter

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerves often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Special NORTHAMPTON HERALD & POST Reader Offer

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

Advertisement Feature

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg."

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

TRIUMPHANT: Paul finally achieves childhood dream

Paul's 'Triumph' as dream comes true

A photographer's childhood dream of driving a Triumph Renown has come true after 58 years of waiting.
Paul Howard, from Towcester, has dreamed of getting behind the wheel of the classic car ever since he was five when his father purchased one. The car was sold when Paul was seven after his dad died of cancer but he recently found one at auction and got it straight away.
He said: "I'm so happy to be driving it."

Thomas Becket's trial to be marked

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Churches across the town will commemorate the 850th anniversary of the trial of Thomas Becket at Northampton Castle in 1164 with a series of events and services.

Thomas Becket (1118-1170) was made Lord Chancellor and then Archbishop of Canterbury by Henry II.

The king's patronage turned sour when Becket proved too determined in resisting the king's control over the church.

In October 1164 the king and his cohorts attended a Great Council at Northampton Castle, at which the king threw charge after charge at his former friend.

Finally the charge of treason was made, but before sentence could be pronounced Becket fled and made his escape to France where he remained for seven years.

His return in 1170 led to his murder and subsequent recognition as a venerated saint and martyr.

The events commemorating the anniversary will take place at All Saints Church, Northampton Cathedral and the Church of Holy Sepulchre.

Cllr David Mackintosh, leader of the borough council, said: "Thomas Becket is a figure of great importance to English history.

"These events and services offer us the opportunity to honour him."

Welcome. . .

What's the first thing you should do when you want to move? Sit down.

It sounds like I'm talking in riddles but it's really very simple. Sit down with your Herald and Post property supplement and see what's out there.

You'll do a lot of research whether you are buying or selling so make sure you start with the newspaper with the biggest circulation in the county. And in these pages you'll find not just an amazing array of expertise in the businesses that advertise here but some of the nicest people you could hope to meet along the way. Why shouldn't they be? A new home is a big dream for some, a smaller dream for others but when the keys are handed over it's always a dream come true. Good luck with your search, you're starting in the right place...

Warm regards,
Alan Doyle

Doses of Inspiration

THE chance to talk about art and its inspiration is all too rare in this world of instant gratification and channel-hopping lack of attention. So the Royal & Derngate's new season of weekly discussions, billed as 'Doses of Inspiration', is a welcome addition to the cultural landscape of Northampton.

For practitioners and audiences alike, this strand of talks – complete with follow-up conversations over an informal glass of wine – opens up a whole arena of fascinating topics, from arts funding to what makes an audience.

Delivered by writer-performer Chris Goode, this curtain-raiser offered intelligent provocation, thoughtful analysis and plenty of intriguing questions about how theatre views its target market.

The series continues every Friday at 4pm for the next few weeks, and deserves a wide, welcoming audience for its inspiring and optimistic approach to the arts. The next talk is on social investment with Nandini Das and Mike Niedzwiecki.

WHAT'S ON ROUND-UP*Tensions to explode in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof*BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

One of theatre's most seductive evocations of the Deep South takes to the stage this month.

In a Royal & Derngate co-production with Northern Stage, Newcastle, and Manchester's Royal Exchange Theatre, Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer prize-winning Cat on a Hot Tin Roof will bring an explosion of tensions.

It sees the stifling heat of the plantation. A relationship on the brink. A night of bourbon-soaked confrontations and a family dynasty in crisis. Brimming with emotional intensity, this powerful drama sees members of the family gather together on the night of patriarch and cotton tycoon Big Daddy's 65th birthday.

Keeping from him the news that he is dying, the evening spirals into disaster as the family scramble to secure their part of his inheritance.

Directed by Royal & Derngate's artistic director James Dacre, and with original music by the band White Lies, the production is playing on Northampton's Royal stage now, until Saturday, October 18 after opening in Newcastle.

Taking the role of Big Mama is seasoned Broadway and West End performer Kim Criswell, who was nominated for an Olivier for Best Actress in Musical for the title role in Annie Get Your Gun.

Playing the part of Big Daddy is Daragh O'Malley, a veteran of RSC (Royal Shakespeare Company) seasons who is also well known from TV series Sharpe and films The Long Good Friday and Withnail and I. Mariah Gale, whose many credits with the RSC include Juliet, Ophelia, Miranda and Portia, plays the iconic role of Maggie the Cat.

Performances take place at 7.45pm in the evenings (7pm tonight) and matinees are at 2.30pm on Thursdays and Saturdays. To book tickets (£10-£29) call 01604 624811 or visit www.royalandderngate.co.uk

WHAT'S ON ROUND-UP

Python star Palin looks back on all his travels

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

From travelling around the world in 80 days to sell-out crowds at The O2 with his Monty Python pals, Michael Palin is set to look back on it all.

The broadcaster, actor, and author is bringing his two-part stage show, Travelling To Work, to Northampton's Royal & Derngate, on Sunday.

Famously known for his role within the comedy group Monty Python, Palin is here to celebrate the publication of his third volume of Diaries, Travelling To Work.

Michael will be presenting a brand new two-part stage show that looks back at his 25 years of exploring the world and nearly 50 years in radio, television, books and films.

It will be his first ever solo tour, and even at the age of 71, Michael said recently in an interview that there are no thoughts of retirement.

That is even highlighted by the fact that he is about to appear in Remember Me, his first lead role in a TV drama for more than 20 years, and is thinking of writing another novel.

In the first half of Michael's show, he will be taking audiences on a whistle-stop tour of the globe, which will be vividly illustrated by a special selection of photos and footage shot during eight TV travel series that began with Around The World In 80 Days.

In the second half, Michael then takes a look into the other side of his life, the love of comedy that took him from a schoolboy in Sheffield to Python at the O2 and talking about the joy of writing and acting that has allowed him to produce two novels.

If you would like to join him when he takes to the Derngate stage on Sunday at 7.30pm, tickets are available, priced £30.50, by calling 01604 624811 or visiting www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Boogie all night

Classic 1970s pop hits are set to combine in the ultimate party show on Saturday.

Dancing Queen The Concert is bringing an action-packed production, featuring all the greatest hits from ABBA, Grease and the biggest hits from the 70s.

This ultimate feel-good show will have the whole family dancing in the aisles and singing along to their favourite songs such as Dancing Queen, Waterloo, Mamma Mia, Knowing Me, Knowing You and Thank You for the Music.

The show takes place at 7.30pm and tickets (£20) can be booked by calling 01604 624811 or visiting www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Fun pop-up festival to take over theatre

Northampton's Royal & Derngate is throwing open its doors on Saturday for Fun Palaces, a free pop-up festival and open day.

From creative workshops for all ages to live performances and theatre anyone can take part in, there are a huge amount of activities taking place throughout the day in all kinds of spaces, including the theatre's stages, foyer space and 12 tents erected around the building. Activities include dressing up in costumes from the wardrobe department, face painting, making masks, drawing or learning Chinese paper cutting.

Workshop themes range from poetry, dance and singing, to opportunities to find out how stage lighting works. The free event takes place from 9.30am to 5pm, and from 5pm onwards for adults.

Eat Drink & Party!

Merry-making is a part and parcel of Christmas.

Not that it was always that way. The season of goodwill to all men was decidedly gloomy in the years between 1647 and 1660. Oliver Cromwell banned Christmas pudding, mince pies and anything that lip-smacked of tasty fun.

If, in 2014, it's a silent night that you're after there's nothing nicer than to tuck yourself up in front of the telly with a hot water bottle, a mince pie and a cup of cocoa.

On the other hand, there's nothing like a good night out to put you in a festive frame of mind. So come on party people...

The year may have been difficult, money may have been tight, but put your cares behind you for a couple of hours and let the spirit of Christmas bring goodwill to all men, women and children too!

It may be a drink with friends, a romantic dinner with a loved one or a day out with the kids. As for the office 'do', Christmas is the one time of year when everyone can share the fun, the glamour and the gossip!

There's a great choice of places to go locally when it comes to enjoying a night out. You'll find service with a seasonal smile and quality that you can afford. Even better - there's no washing up of sticky pots, pans and glasses afterwards!

COVERCAR

Inside the new Skoda Octavia Test drive

- £25,315 - £27,990
- Emissions 129-134g/km
- Max Speed 135mph
- 0-60mph 7.8s
- Fuel - 55.4mpg

The Skoda Octavia Scout estate offers an all-wheel drive chassis, a raised ride height and a pair of punchy diesel engines at prices that stack up against some superminis. It's bigger inside than a Passat Alltrack or an Insignia Country Tourer and cheaper to run than both as well. Job very well done. This Skoda Octavia is the sort of vehicle bought by people who will genuinely use its extended capabilities. It's a car that will get the job done in all weathers and which will shrug off some serious punishment in the process. It's never going to make the list of those looking to make a lifestyle statement or impress their friends at the golf club and that, in part, is what makes the Scout so appealing. It's authentic, and authenticity is something car manufacturers spend millions trying to claim. As a one car solution that does nearly everything, the Scout takes a heck of a lot of beating.

FORMULA ONE

Japan a favourite for Force's drivers

NEXT RACE: Suzuka

Force India's Nico Hulkenberg and Sergio Perez are looking forward to the Japanese Grand Prix this weekend as it takes place on one of the Silverstone based duo's favourite circuits.

"Suzuka is one of the best circuits of the year," said Hulkenberg.

"I think it's quite similar to Spa in terms of the feeling you get inside the car. It's just a great place to experience a Formula One car and it's a lot of fun. There are some big corners, especially the 'S' curves, which are very technical.

"Finding the right balance is very important for being quick in these long, sweeping corners. The last couple of years I've scored good points in Japan so I want to add some more this year."

Perez added: "Suzuka is such an exciting circuit. It's a classic full of great corners in every sector.

"It's a track where confidence with your car is especially important because you need to find the flow of the lap, especially in the first sector from turns two to seven where you have to be totally committed.

"The key is to be precise, but it's very technical and not easy to hit every apex.

"Because there are so many high-speed corners, it's not easy to follow cars closely and overtaking is very difficult.

"It's possible, though, and I remember having a good battle with Lewis [Hamilton] two years ago."

Peters considering future as dismal season finishes

CRICKET

BY MATT WRIGHT
sport@nmedia.co.uk

Outgoing Northamptonshire captain Stephen Peters admits he is happy to see the back of this season and said he will be thinking long and hard about his own future at the club.

The skipper, who will be replaced by Alex Wakely for 2014/15, said he was surprised and disappointed to be relieved and his future may now be away from the county.

Northants rounded off what has been a wretched season with a tame draw against Sussex at Wantage Road, setting a record for the lowest points total in Division One of the County Championship.

They failed miserably to adapt to their first season in the top flight for a decade, failing to win a match while being on the wrong end of an innings thrashing eight times.

The county also disappointed in the one-day competitions although there were some decent displays against Sussex with Rob Keogh making his second century of the season in striking 129.

Olly Stone also impressed with the ball in taking 5-48 in the visitors' first innings with Muhammad Azharullah claiming a brilliant 7-76 in their second.

It wasn't enough to add some sheen to a dreadful year with Peters saying: "I'll be relieved to see the back of 2014 – it's not been a great season for us as a team or as a club.

"This is a real shame after 2013, which was one of the best seasons I have ever been involved in.

"Overall we're pretty relieved and I am because the captaincy has been hard work this year and it's been very tough at times.

"We always knew it would be but

MUCH TO PONDER: Stephen Peters Picture: Andy Kearns

I think maybe we didn't realise that it would work out quite as badly as it did for us – we need to forget about this year."

The turmoil of the past five months has led to a lot of upheaval at the club with the county already announcing the departures of Andrew Hall, James Middlebrook and Matthew Spriegel.

Club legend David Sales has announced his retirement and Northants were dealt a blow last week when young batsman James Kettleborough agreed a two-year deal at Glamorgan.

Batsman Josh Cobb is joining from Leicestershire and all-rounder Adam Rossington is making his loan from Middlesex permanent, as well as the change in leadership with Wakely taking over.

Peters feels the decision to relieve him as captain was 'harsh' and the 35-year-old has been told he will be allowed to leave if he finds another county despite having a year left on his contract.

He said: "Honestly, I've no idea whether I'll be here next April or not.

"I've told the club and some people that I've been speaking to that I'm in no rush to make a decision and I'm going to take some time to make that.

"I've been exploring my options because I want to keep playing although I was quite surprised and disappointed.

"I feel I've been a good servant to the club and though this has been my first bad season in nine, I feel as if I've done some good things at the club.

"I'm bitterly disappointed that the club felt that they had to go down that route and I'm exploring my options because I feel there's more left in my tank."

future. Medical teams from both Northampton and England are liaising on the Lions' star's treatment and recovery.

It is the latest blow for the 26-year-old who missed much of last season due to a knee injury and his lay-off will mean that he will not be in contention for England's autumn internationals.

Saints Director of Rugby Jim Mallinder had earlier expressed his confidence that there would be no major injury concerns following the 31-24 victory over Bath.

In addition to Corbisiero coming off, fellow England duo Tom Wood and Courtney Lawes were late withdrawals from the matchday squad.

"There are no major concerns. "We have generally got a fit squad," Mallinder said.

"Tom has got a bit of a sore back and Courtney a sore shoulder.

"They are improving and hopefully with an extra week they will be fit to play down at London Irish next Saturday."

Saints survived a late Bath comeback to seal the victory with a bonus point at the Gardens thanks to scores from Calum Clark, Christian Day, George Pisi and a penalty try.

"When you score four tries against Bath, that is good going," Mallinder added. "Where I was disappointed was that we let them back into the game and that is an area we probably need to sharpen up on.

"Bath are a very good team. We were probably fortunate in the end that Dylan Hartley got under that last maul.

"We worked our way into a good lead, then we probably switched off a little bit. We defended as individuals and a team like Bath are going to take those opportunities.

"Dylan was key at the end. I thought overall he had a really good game. His set-piece play was very good."

TRY TIME: George Pisi touches down against Bath.

Consistency needed if Cobblers are to stay with promotion pack

COBBLERS

BY CIARAN THOMAS
sport@snmedia.co.uk

After an up and down September Chris Wilder wants his Northampton Town side to put together a consistent run of results ahead of Saturday's trip to Wycombe Wanderers.

The Cobblers sit fifth in the League Two table but have experienced mixed fortunes in recent weeks, with three victories punctuated by defeats against Newport and Accrington.

It's a run that has left Wilder frustrated, but the Town manager refused to use the current injury problems at Sixfields as an excuse for the inconsistency.

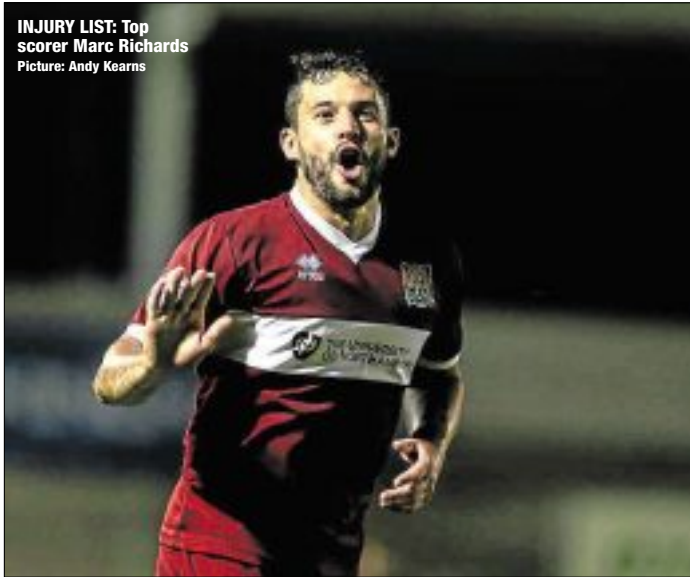

"I don't like that sequence, we'd like to stick a streak together and hopefully we will do when we get a few players back," he said. "But there's no reason why with the group we've got we can't go on a run."

"That's what's infuriating, we've taken nine points from the month, if you nick a draw against Newport or Accrington that's ten points and promotion form, two points a game."

"We're not a million miles off and the stats show if you win 23 games and lose 23 you'll be in and around it, but we don't want that, we want to show consistency and stick runs together."

"It's been difficult over the first two months as we've not had the continuity and maybe people will say

INJURY LIST: Top scorer Marc Richards
Picture: Andy Kearns

that's why we've been a touch inconsistent but we've got good enough players to get us in this position."

The Cobblers' injury problems have been well documented, with top scorer Marc Richards and Danny Alfei bringing the number of players unavailable for last Saturday's trip to Morecambe up to nine.

However, Ivan Toney came into the starting line-up in Richards' place and went on to score the only goal of the game, and Wilder said he was delighted with the impact of the teenage striker and fellow youngster Lawson D'Ath.

"It's important we've got players at the top and all over the pitch that are good players," he said. "Ivan's played with Marc and played with Lawson now and I thought the two young boys did great at the top of the pitch."

"Look at that, we've got an 18 and 21-year-old leading the line which is really good news for us, like we had with John [Marquis] and Ivan at the back end of last season."

"It's good and we've got Emile [Sinclair] and Marc Richards to come back in as well so it's important that when we have these periods that we still manage to get results."

The clash with Wycombe on Saturday is the first between the sides since Good Friday when the then relegation rivals clashed in a League Two basement battle at Adams Park.

The two sides drew a tense encounter 1-1 and Wycombe went on to join the Cobblers in avoiding the drop to the Conference on the final day of the season.

Six months on and both clubs sit at the opposite end of the table with the Chairboys second, having lost just one of their opening ten games in large part thanks to one of the best defensive records in the Football League.

Wilder, whose men are top scorers in League Two, praised the start made by Gareth Ainsworth's side, and pinpointed two new signings as the key to their turnaround.

"Both teams survived and you look forward to the next campaign," he said. "We've both wiped the slate clean, moved on and are both having decent starts."

"They've had a really good start, but that's all it is, they'll be wanting to continue it but so will we. They mirror the manger and his approach and they've signed a couple of players in key areas."

"Peter Murphy has been a coveted player in the league so for him to go from Accrington to Wycombe was a big coup for Gareth and at the top of the pitch they've brought in Paul Hayes as well, who is an excellent player."

Wilder predicted that it is going to be tough at the top of League Two, with plenty of sides in contention.

"We've seen in individual games with ourselves we've been outstanding on occasions and not so on others, on the day any team can turn anyone else over," he said.

"I think it's going to be a tight competition, I don't think anybody is going to run away with it, we see Burton have started off outstandingly well and there's a couple who have shocked a few and some big clubs who are in and around it."

"We can be happy with our start, but we have to make sure we don't sit back and we kick on as it's another big month for us."

"Hopefully Saturday will give us a lot of confidence and encouragement that we can grind out a defensive performance."

Sunshine in Morecambe after the Accrington debacle

COBBLERS

Columnist Tom Reed on Northampton Town's 1-0 win at Morecambe on Saturday.

Cobblers' 1-0 away win over Morecambe brought sunshine for fans after the dark 5-4 Accrington defeat.

Morecambe weren't wise in playing a long-ball game against Northampton's towering centre-backs Ryan Cresswell and Lee Collins.

Indeed, whilst Accrington's ball-to-feet counter-attacking exposed ponderous Cobblers footwork, the Shrimps' long-haul approach rarely threatened the Northampton net.

The question of whether Cobblers are over-reliant on top scorer Marc Richards was answered when the eight-goal player was ruled out with a hamstring strain. Teenager Ivan Toney got the nod to lead the line with attacking midfielder Lawson D'Ath providing support.

Northampton had worked hard on defensive shape, according to boss Chris Wilder, and Ben Tozer's inclusion at right back added further height to Cobblers' lofty rearguard.

This provided the basis for attacking confidence as both Toney and Leicester loanee Ryan Watson tested Shrimps keeper Barry Roche within two minutes of the start.

Cobblers could have taken the lead after 27 minutes when the Chris Hackett-Kaid Mohamed connection combined from a corner with the flying Mohamed firing his volley at Roche and behind.

Yet, Northampton weren't to be denied and broke the deadlock six minutes later through a header from Toney. Eastfield's own Michael Jordan achieved impressive hang time in looping the ball over the static Roche after a long ball up-field had only been half-cleared by the Shrimps.

For someone hitting the net regularly (three goals in a week), Toney is perhaps more capable in the air than on the deck, which is unusual with modern coaching encouraging grass-skimming short passing.

Cobblers fans tucked into award winning Morecambe pies at half time, their bellies replete with pastry and hearts with confidence after a solid showing.

Things were to improve further in the second 45 as Toney sent another powerful header goalwards within a minute of the restart, with the Shrimps' stopper tipping over.

Northampton's midfield dominated while Morecambe persisted with futile high balls towards five foot six forward Jack Redshaw.

Meanwhile, key threat Kevin Ellison looked fatigued and was well marshalled by ex-Shrimp Ryan Cresswell, the Cobblers' defender no doubt delighted at an afternoon free of Stanley's rapid John O'Sullivan.

With a one-nil lead, Cobblers remained vulnerable and could have conceded an equaliser when Paul Mullin surged into the Northampton box before screwing a shot past Jordan Archer's right-hand post.

Game management in mind, Wilder withdrew D'Ath on 70 minutes, bringing on John-training base for the club.

Yet the pain of injury issues will be eased by the Cobblers' fifth placed league position.

Oxford United fans may now rue their casual reaction to Wilder's Sixfields defection, his old club now second from bottom.

Next up for Cobblers is a visit to Wycombe Wanderers where Northampton will hope to unseat the Chairboys and go one better than their Saints rugby counterparts who were stung by Wasps recently at Adams Park.
